

NIVERSITY
R GEORGIA

Lieutenant General Paul T. Calvert
Deputy Commanding General
U.S. Army Forces Command

Lieutenant General Calvert graduated from then-North Georgia College in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in General Studies and commissioned as an Armor Officer. General Calvert later earned a Master's Degree in Strategic Studies from the U.S. Air Force Air University.

Lieutenant General Calvert assumed responsibility as the Deputy Commanding General, U.S. Army Forces Command, on December 3, 2021, at Ft. Liberty, North Carolina (formerly Ft. Bragg). His previous assignments as a general officer included Commander, Combined Joint Task Force-Operation Inherent Resolve, Operation INHERENT RESOLVE, Iraq; U.S. Army Deputy Chief of Staff, G-3/5/7; Commanding General, 1st Cavalry Division; and Deputy Commanding General (Maneuver), 1st Cavalry Division. Prior to becoming a general, he served in three different Armored Cavalry Regiments and in several significant staff positions.

Order of Events

Blue Ridge Rifles Demonstration

Corps of Cadets marches onto the Drill Field

Invocation

Cadet Nicholas Rainwater

Sound Off

Golden Eagle Band

Honors to the Reviewing Officer

National Anthem

Golden Eagle Band

Welcome and Introduction of Guest Speaker

President Michael P. Shannon

Guest Speaker

Lieutenant General Paul T. Calvert

Pass In Review

Army Song

Golden Eagle Band

Reviewing Party

Lieutenant General Paul T. Calvert

President Michael Shannon

Colonel Bryan Kirk

Professor of Military Science

Colonel (Retired) Joseph Matthews

Commandant of Cadets

